About Us

The Chilliwack Metropolitan Orchestra, Chilliwack's community orchestra, was founded in 2008 by local volunteer musicians who were dedicated to performing high quality symphony concerts for patrons of the eastern Fraser Valley. Over past seasons we have presented some of the very best in guest soloists including Dr. Robert Silverman, Jennifer Lim, Dr. Janice Fehlauer, Dr. Sarah Davis Buechner and operatic soloists soprano Siobhan Raupach and bass baritone Andrew Greenwood

We have also presented innovative collaborations with other musical organizations such as Beatles Tribute group, The Fab Fourever, Philomusica Chorus and members of the Chilliwack Players Guild.

From the Artistic Director

Welcome, everyone, to our new home, the Salvation Army Church! We at the CMO are delighted, for the first time in our 15 year history, to rehearse and perform in the same facility. The sounds and energy of this space are inviting and thrilling to the ear. In addition to our new home we are also offering for the first time, season's tickets, available at Eventbrite.ca. If you love what you experience today, please consider purchasing the Duet Pack ($10 savings) for the following two concerts of our 2022-2023 season.

We aim to have fun, to entertain, to inspire, and above all, to experience beautiful music together, as a community. Enjoy our first offering today, Hallowe'en Spooktacular 2. Looking for more? You will undoubtedly enjoy our traditional Christmas concert with special guest Crystal Hicks, and our spring concert, Classical Music's All-Time Greatest Hits EVER!

Best Wishes,

Gregory Douglas Johnson
Artistic Director

Now in his ninth season as Artistic Director of the Chilliwack Metropolitan Orchestra, Gregory Douglas Johnson continues to be in demand among top conductors in the Metro Vancouver and Fraser Valley region, having recently been appointed conductor of the Vancouver Pops Orchestra. Renowned for his innovative and thoughtful programming, audiences are quick to respond to his welcoming manner and nimble wit. Born and raised in the Fraser Valley, his conducting pursuits have taken him across the country and into Europe. He has had the opportunity to work with esteemed conductors such as Larry Rachleff, Gustav Meier, Kirk Trevor, and Jonathan Girard. During his orchestral conducting training in Winnipeg, he had the rare opportunity to conduct the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra and the St. John's Chamber Orchestra, in addition to his work with the University Orchestra and Wind Ensemble.

Maestro Johnson is equally at home in choral and wind ensemble conducting. He recently completed his 10th season as Music Director of the Fraser Valley Community Winds, an ensemble dedicated to community outreach and collaboration. He also maintains an award-winning choir, recorder group, and marimba ensemble at Woodward Hill Elementary in Surrey. He has worked with students of all ages, having held concurrent flute instructor posts at Trinity Western University and the Langley Community Music School.
