Now in his ninth season as Artistic Director of the Chilliwack Metropolitan Orchestra, Gregory Douglas Johnson continues to be in demand among top conductors in the Metro Vancouver and Fraser Valley region, having recently been appointed conductor of the Vancouver Pops Orchestra. Renowned for his innovative and thoughtful programming, audiences are quick to respond to his welcoming manner and nimble wit. Born and raised in the Fraser Valley, his conducting pursuits have taken him across the country and into Europe. He has had the opportunity to work with esteemed conductors such as Larry Rachleff, Gustav Meier, Kirk Trevor, and Jonathan Girard. During his orchestral conducting training in Winnipeg, he had the rare opportunity to conduct the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra and the St. John's Chamber Orchestra, in addition to his work with the University Orchestra and Wind Ensemble.

Maestro Johnson is equally at home in choral and wind ensemble conducting. He recently completed his 10th season as Music Director of the Fraser Valley Community Winds, an ensemble dedicated to community outreach and collaboration. He also maintains an award-winning choir, recorder group, and marimba ensemble at Woodward Hill Elementary in Surrey. He has worked with students of all ages, having held concurrent flute instructor posts at Trinity Western University and the Langley Community Music School. His family of two irrepressible young children, Gabriel and Josephine, and his wife Jacqueline, love to spend time together out in nature, particularly by the ocean.

Don't miss the CMO's March 26 2023 Spring concert!

Who can forget those CD titles promising, with ever-expanding superlatives, the best classical music, the most relaxing classical music, the most epic classical music in the history of the world?! The Chilliwack Metropolitan Orchestra intends to settle the answer once and for all with our own version: Classical Music's All-Time Greatest Hits... EVER! 3:00 p.m. Same venue.

Today's Soloists

Crystal Hicks is originally from the Bahamas. She came to Canada in 1978 to attend college, first in Moncton, NB, and then to Langley, BC, where she attended Trinity Western University. Upon graduation, she married her greatest supporter and best friend, Kirk. They have two sons, Kyle and Kent. Other things that occupy her time are her work as office manager at Henderson's Fraser Valley Funeral Home, singing opportunities as a soloist and with various groups, and the occasional speaking engagement, mainly with Christian Women's groups.

Stanley Tsang is a musician based in Vancouver, B.C. He has a Bachelor's degree in Jazz Studies from Capilano University as well as a Bachelor of Education from UBC. He is a BC certified teacher with experience in both elementary and secondary classrooms. Stanley is a guitarist as well as a bass player, often performing in musical theatre as well as various bands. Stanley plays a wide variety of instruments and is fluent in many musical styles including rock, jazz, classical, metal and gospel.
